

FORT RILEY'S PARENTS AS TEACHERS HEROES AT HOME

- ☆ Is a family member deployed or deploying within 3 months?
- ☆ Do you have a child or children 36 months old or younger?

Public Domain Photo by Randi Flaugh

There is no basic training for parenting, but there is Parents As Teachers Heroes At Home

If so, you are eligible to participate in Fort Riley's Parents As Teachers Heroes At Home program. This program provides free parent education and family support services for military families experiencing the unique challenges of deployment.

Fun learning activities and age-appropriate child development information is shared during:

- ☆ Playtimes
- ☆ Group Meetings
- ☆ Home Visits

Photo by Vicki Ohmacht

These services can help your family build a strong relationship which provides a secure foundation for your child's development.

Public Domain Photo by Martin Greeson

For additional information contact Child & Youth Services at 239-9885 OR call 238-3103 and ask for the Family Network Learning Center
at extension 515.

In collaboration with Fort Riley's Child & Youth Services and Geary County USD 475 Parents As Teachers Heroes At Home.

